

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Affidavit of

Ross Allen

MUR 6767

AFFIDAVIT OF ROSS ALLEN

Ross Allen, being first duly sworn, on oath says that:

1. I am the Treasurer of Central Valley Independent PAC ("CVI PAC").
2. I established CVI PAC for the sole purpose of supporting Republican candidate Brian Whelan in California's 16th Congressional District during the 2012 election cycle.
3. Since 2012, CVI PAC has not raised any contributions and has not engaged in any political advocacy.
4. As Treasurer of CVI PAC, I manage CVI PAC's finances. Due to an administrative oversight, our prior representation of cash-on-hand was incorrect. It did not take into account funds that are owed to CVI PAC of $3,742.40, and inadvertently misstated the amount that has been spent by CVI PAC in 2014 after it created a new bank depository.
5. As evidenced by the attached bank statements, copies of checks, and CVI PAC's FEC Reports, the current cash-on-hand, including all funds owed to CVI PAC, is $4,730.40. This includes $988 that is currently in CVI PAC's Wells Fargo business checking account, and $3,742.40 that is owed to CVI PAC from Double B Farms, as reflected on CVI PAC's April 2014 Quarterly Report.
6. CVI PAC seeks to terminate its registration with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC"), and will do so as soon as this matter is settled.
7. Brian Whelan is not a candidate for Congress in 2014. Because CVI PAC was a single candidate Super PAC organized solely to support Brian Whelan, and no other candidates, CVI PAC is unable to raise funds from prior contributors for the purpose of paying FEC administrative fines in this matter.
